

Installing the AstroClock

Double-click on the line below to download the software.

When the program is finished downloading click on run

- 1) if you have Norton it may bring up the screen to stop you from running it. Just click run anyway.
- 2) the program will start installing. Just keep clicking on next.
- 3) the program will install in the directory named "AClock" directory
- 4) to RUN the program double-click on a file named "Aclock1.exe"
- 5) to watch the instruction video double-click "click here to watch air software video at the top of the screen "
- 6) to put a icon on your desktop do the following: right-click on the file named "AClock1.EXE" in the next dialog box click on send to and it will open another dialog box . Click on create shortcut to desktop.